HERE'S THE ROOSTER
It Took Sam Stairs of the Doyer News
to Find the Most Patriotic Bird.
When Albert Thomas left for the front with the first selects he left at home as likely a bunch of fine Or-pington chickens as ever appeared the hunger of a minister.
Now we don't say that the fine
white rooster at the head of the flock knows that his boss is "over there" fighting for world-wide liberty, but we do say that ever since Albert went away he has kept up a regular machine-gun fire of crowing not unusual with common roosters.
He crows all days and at all hours of the night. When a pro-German passes along the street that rooster will fly up on the coop and crow at him. No matter at what hour of the night a trainload of soldiers passes through town that bird can be heard crowing. An unusual racket was heard in the feeding lot and investigation disclosed that some one had accidentally dropped a German-silver spoon in the feed-through. The sight of a dachshund sets him crazy, and they do say that he crowed himself hoarse when Rob Sidwell went by with a string of German carp.
Anyhow, he is some chicken!

HUNS FORCED TO GIVE UP GROUND
Field Marshal Haig Reports That Germans Are Thrown Out of Positions
Which They Took at Great Sacrifice in Attack Wednesday — German Snatches at Allied
Lines Break
Down.
With the British Army in France,
May 9—Fighting was still in progress
this morning near Vlorstret on the front southwest of Ypres. At one time the British were forced to back slightly by machine gun fire. All the rest of the original defenses, however, appeared to be again in the hands of the defenders in the Voor-mezele-La Clytte sector.
After their first success in yesterday's fighting the Germans were unable to gain further ground despite repeated assaults at Allied line. Bitter struggles took place about Klein Vierstret Cabaret, west of Vierstret and in the ridge wood but the British clung desperately to their positions.
The British organized a counter attack during the night which was so vigorous that the Germans were unable to withstand it and gradually fell back until they had abandoned all the ground gained.
The enemy's move undoubtedly was an attempt to improve his positions by way of preparation for a bigger attack to come. The assault was delivered with great determination and by noon
the Germans had obtained a foothold
in the British front at the ridge wood, while in the center of the sector near Vierstret, the attacking forces had pushed in a considerable distance beyond the defending front line. Both flanks of the Germans were held up by the artillery fire.
Hard fighting continued throughout the day, especially in the center.
A vigorous counter attack last night resulted in the re-establishment of the Allied line in the Voormezele-La Clytte sector where the Germans, in a local attack yesterday, succeeded in making some advance. This operation, though comparatively small, developed hard fighting throughout most of the day and into the night.

FUTURE DRAFT QUOTAS
Based on Number of Men in First Class—House Adopts Conference
Report That Reject Amendment
Providing For Giving States
Credit for Voluntary Enlistments.
Washington, May 9—The House today, adopted the conference report on the bill to base draft quotas on the number of men in class one, accepting the elimination of its amendment authorizing credits on quotas for volunteer enlistments. The report awaits action in the Senate.
Because of a senate amendment exempting ministerial and medical students, the House sent back to the conference the conference report on the bill providing for the registration of youths attaining the age of 21 years
since the registration last June.
The vote on the rejection of the Senate amendment was 182 to 118.
Representatives McKenzle of Illinois,
supporting the House action declared that opposition to the drafting of diversity students comes from men who have money invested in theological seminaries. Supporters of the amendment said the President has authority under the draft laws to exempt such students from the draft, so that adoption or rejection of the proposal by the House was immaterial.
Representatives Cannon of Illinois vigorously opposed the rejection of the amendment giving states credits for voluntary enlistments, and was supported by Representative Mondell of Wyoming and Representative Shallenberger, of Nebraska, author of the amendment.

and we take it there will be no delay
upon the part of those holding wheat to report as above requested.

vised that two cents (2c) per pound cash, or its equivalent, and two and one half cents (2½c) per pound on credit, with freight added from the factory, above the manufacturers price of twenty-three cents (23c) per pound, will not be considered unreasonable, but intimates that anything more than that taken by retail merchants would be subject to serious investigation.
W. D. COCHRAN,
Food Administrator for Mason County.
Mrs. Frank Keith entertained the Fifth Ward Sewing Club at her home

Hindenburg Ready For Supreme Blow, Relief In London
London, May 9—The British hit back on the five mile front north of Kemmel today, where the Germans had penetrated Haig's front line in the center yesterday. The British positions between La Clytte and Voor-mezele were completely re-established, the war office was able to announce today.
The British war office, telling of yesterday's attack, claims 675 prisoners were taken.
Today two local assaults were delivered by the Teutons in the Albert sector, near that town itself and at Dousincourt. In the latter area the British rifle and machine gun fire swept out the attack in the making but at Albert, according to admissions by Haig tonight, the enemy gained a foothold in the British advanced positions on a front of 150 yards but not until after he had paid the price in blood, which the Tommies meant to exact.
On the French front in Picardy violent artillery duels are raging. In Flanders and at Arras, too, there have been heavy gun actions but not of dram fire intensity. Nevertheless the belief is practically general here that Hindenburg is ready for his supreme blow, which Premier Lloyd George foreshadowed in the Commons today.
That, expert opinion is sure, the Germans must continue their Ypres drive
and they must attack the Arras front.
The correspondent of the Echo De Paris says the belief is that the new attack of Hindenburg will come tomorrow or Saturday and that it will be launched between Albert and Amiens. Editorially the paper doubts if the Germans will be ready to attack before May 14 at the earliest. It expresses the belief the attack will not come before May 24.

COMMON SCHOOL EXAMINATION

and street, will leave today to visit Mrs. Hatch of Columbus, Ohio, for a few days.

BUSINESS AND THE WAR

General business, according to New York Commercial authorities, is very good, considering the abnormal uncertainties and perplexities to be faced.

Government regulation is still the great unsettling factor, and there is every reason to expect still further intrusions of this character. The difficult problem of price fixing is one that closely occupies the attention of public officials. Legislators seem unable to cope with it satisfactorily, and none appreciate the limitations of a price-fixing policy better than our efficient and exceedingly capable Food Administrator, Mr. Hoover.

Discussion as to fixing the prices of wheat at $2.50 is still going on, though Mr. Wilson is understood to oppose any increase in the price of wheat beyond the present figure $2.25; and Canada is content at fixing the price at $2.21. Meanwhile the Western farmer fails to see why the price of his wheat should be restrained; when the Southern planter is apparently free to push the price of cotton to the limit of profiteering, as has already been done.

"Our cotton and woolen manufacturers," says one market letter, "are also more or less in the air, in view of the prospects of government regulating the prices of finished goods, and the supplies of wool. Disinterested judges, even governmental officials themselves, recognize that prices are being regulated automatically by the law of supply and demand; yet under the conditions created by war there is apparently no other means of preventing the unscrupulous from profiteering and taking undue advantage of the needs of others.

If the war continues the government will probably undertake to enforce both price fixing and curtailing of luxuries in a much more vigorous fashion than ever. The effort to turn industry from production of non-essentials will become even more aggressive; and the campaign for public economy must then become more and more intense.

"Though actual legislation in this direction is hardly probable, the government through its control of transportation, and especially through its banking influence when the War Finance Corporation is in operation, will be able to control business forces, directly or indirectly, much more completely than now. Plans are already being made to these ends."

GARFIELD, WORD-PAINTER

Under this freedom a man or a nation may deliberately choose a narrow, self-seeking career. The man or the nation may choose to disregard the rights of others and the common welfare of the world, but the man or nation so choosing will stand condemned in the eyes of those who comprehend the deep significance of the purpose for which our Williams men and millions of others here and elsewhere are devoting their lives. The nation that seeks primarily its own advancement, even though it proclaims a purpose to confer benefits upon the rest of the world, is building on the fallacies of feudalism.

In his foregoing statement, made in the course of a recent address to the alumni of Williams College, in New York City, Dr. Garfield, the Fuel Administrator, certainly aptly described the United States prior to April, 1917. Up to that time we chose "a narrow, self-seeking career"; we chose "to disregard the common welfare of the world"; we sought "primarily our own advancement," our own prosperity and peace, regardless of the call of God and humanity.

We rolled in our own fatness; we said we are not our brother's keeper; we said the murder of civilization is none of our business, and throughout the land college presidents, preachers and politicians said it's none of our business; let us keep peace and go on piling up wealth and living in ease and shut our eyes to the greatest tragedy in the world's history. We are safe, they said; what are we that women and children are being brutally outraged and murdered? On with the dance; let joy be unconfined! was our national doctrine.

But perhaps Dr. Garfield did not thus intend specifically to describe the United States. Come to think of it, we wonder what Dr. Garfield as a leader in education did between August, 1914, and April, 1917, to awaken the sense of duty in America. If Dr. Garfield was a great, outstanding leader in that time, which called with the voice of God himself, no one will more gladly publish broadcast the fact than "The Manufacturers' Record." Who knows the facts?

ON TO BERLIN

"On to Richmond!" was the favorite cry during the civil war, and it was kept up until Richmond was captured. Now the rallying cry should be "On to Berlin," and it should be kept up until that citadel of Prussianism tumbles. The force of public sentiment upon this matter would soon penetrate military duty and give it purpose and strength. It really looks as if we won't have peace until we reach Berlin. That is the headquarters of Hunism. When we get there the terms of peace will be easy. The United States does not want any portion of Germany, but there would be great justice in dividing it up among France, Belgium, Italy, Serbia, Poland, Rumania and those nations which have suffered the most. If Germany keeps up the war until the bitter end, that is liable to be the result. It would at least give Germany a taste of her own medicine. The world could better get along with Germany off the planet.

"The Kaiser wants $4,000,000,000 of peaceful Russia and $2,000,000,000 of peaceful Rumania. What he would demand of America we haven't ciphered enough to tell."—Washington Herald. What he will get will be siphers.

ARGENTINE FROZEN MEAT INDUSTRY

Washington, May 9.—Some idea of the growth of the refrigerated meat industry in Argentina may be gleaned from the official statement of Argentina's director general of national statistics, who has published figures showing that in 1910 Argentina exported 362,385 tons of frozen means, total value $8,431,939 gold pesos (gold peso worth $0.965), while in 1917 the total exported was 659,216 tons worth 137,085,392 gold pesos.

In 1910 the United States was on a protective tariff basis and, with the exception of sausage casings, practically no meat products whatever were being imported from Argentina. On October 3, 1913, the Denierale tariff law became effective. Riveted to that tariff law was a gold plated guarantee that free trade would reduce the cost of living, and as it looked like pure gold, many of the people were fooled for a time. All meat products were made free. The law (which is still in force) had free operation for ten months, October, 1913, to July, 1914, inclusive, before the European war broke out and switched the channels of trade. During that ten months period our imports of meat products totaled in value $26,690,000, compared with $3,366,000 during a similar ten months, October, 1912, to July, 1913, under protection. Of fresh meats alone we imported 231,650,500 pounds during the 1913-14 period, and by far the greater proportion of it came from Argentina. Still prices went up.

So great was the promise held out by our free market to American investors in the Argentine refrigerated meat industry, that almost weekly our trade papers carried reports of new plants being erected in the Argentine, backed by American capital and employing Argentine labor, to supply the American market with meats in competition with our home-raised supply. This accounts in large measure for the large development of the meat business in the southernmost republic of the world.

Under present war conditions the difficulty is to produce enough meat products to supply the inordinate demand, hence every producer is assured of ready sales at satisfactory prices, and competition for a particular market is for the time being in abeyance. But the end of the war will find these Argentine plants developed to a high state of efficiency and production, and with free trade

TEAMSTER'S LIFE SAVED PETERSON IS HAPPY

After everything else fails Peterson's Ointment Cures Old and Running Sores, Eczema and Piles.

I was afflicted with a very severe sore on my leg for years. I am a teamster. I tried all medicines and salves, but without success. I tried doctors, but they failed to cure me. I couldn't sleep for many nights from pain. Doctors said I could not live for more than two years. Finally Peterson's Ointment was recommended to me and by its use the sore was entirely healed. Thankful yours, William Hesse, West Park, Ohio, care P. G. Reitz, Box 109. "I am proud of the above letter," says Peterson: "It makes me happy. I have hundreds of others that tell of wonderful cures of Eczema, Piles and Skin Diseases, Pimples, Blackheads and ugly blemishes. Peterson's Ointment is 30 cents at all druggists, and there isn't a broad minded druggist in America that won't praise it."

HOW THIS NERVOUS WOMAN GOT WELL

Told by Herself. Her Sincerity Should Convince Others.

Christopher, Ill.—"For four years I suffered from irregularities, weakness, nervousness, and was in a run down condition. Two of our best doctors failed to do me any good. I heard so much about what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others, I tried it and was cured. I am no longer nervous, am regular, and in excellent health. I believe the Compound will cure any female trouble."—Mrs. ALICE HELLER, Christopher, Ill.

Nervousness is often a symptom of weakness or some functional derangement, which may be overcome by this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as thousands of women have found by experience. If complications exist, write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for suggestions in regard to your ailment. The result of its long experience is at your service.

1,800 MILES OF MOVIE FILMS

More than 1,480 miles of moving picture films—approximately 8,000,000 feet—are being used each week in Army Y. M. C. A. screen entertainments for soldiers at home and abroad according to a compilation received here today from the National War Work Council of the Y. M. C. A. It is shown that on an average there is one moving theater to each unit of 4,000 or 5,000 fighting men.

This total is divided into what are called programmes, which average five reels or 5,000 feet. There are some circuits where a programme will be constantly in use for thirteen weeks. At many camps and cantonments in the central military department, as well as at Great Lakes training station and the chain of aviation fields, a programme frequently stays for more than a week, being exhibited in the Y. M. C. A. huts and camp theaters.

Every reel shown to the soldier boys is censored before exhibiting, but there is lots of heroism found in every reel besides subjects that inspire big thoughts and those that appeal to sentiment.

While every Y. M. C. A. hut in this country has its motion picture apparatus and operators, the Community Motion Picture Bureau, through which the Y. M. C. A. is handling its screen entertainment business, has organized a chain of moving pictures on the western front from Ypres to Lorraine. These entertainments are being supplemented by musicals and theatricals.

The Y. M. C. A. is now recruiting a large force of motion picture operators for service overseas. Men of draft age who cannot satisfy their desire to enter the combat sections of the nation's service because of pronounced disability will be considered by the Y. M. C. A. for service not far from where the shells are exploding and the shrapnel is shrieking. Any man over the draft age will be accepted on proof of his qualifications.

Personally we are strong for economy, but we doubt if it pays a man to wear an unwashed washable necktie.

NEW RULES OUT DOWN SUGAR ALLOWED IN THE MANUFACTURE OF NONESSENTIAL FOODSTUFFS

The Food Administration issues the following: Manufacturers using sugar, except to make essential food products, will be put on strict rationing, the United States Food Administration announces, in order to assure sufficient supplies for home canners and the commercial manufacturers of preserves, jams and other foodstuffs regarded as essential. The restrictions go into effect May 15 and limit the consumption by manufacturers of the less essentials, particularly confectionery and soft drinks. This entire group is allowed to use only 80 per cent of last year's requirements, and under the new plan distribution will be well policed and under a certificate system that virtually assures the elimination of fictitious demands.

Manufacturers of nonedible products will be forced to go entirely without sugar.

Included in the class with confectionery and soft drinks are condiments, soda water, chocolate, candies, beverage sirups, fruit sirups, flavoring extracts, chewing gum, cocoa, sweet pickles, wines, cereals, and invert sugar. These who entered the business or increased their capacity after April 1, 1918, however, will be cut off entirely.

Manufacturers of essential foodstuffs will be permitted to buy sufficient sugar to meet their full requirements. In this class come preservers and packers of vegetables, catsup and chili sauce, fruits and milk manufacturers of jam, jelly, and preserves, tobacco and explosives, apple butter and glycerin, ice cream (not including sherbets and water ices), druggists (for medicines), and producers of honey.

Ice cream is put in the preferred class to assure consumption of surplus milk supplies, and thus encourage dairy interests to maintain production. Tobacco was placed in this class largely because the amount of sugar used by tobaccoists is almost negligible, the chief source of sweets being molasses.

Manufacturers of less essentials who entered the business or increased their capacity before November 1, 1917, shall receive the 80 per cent allowance, but those who started or expanded after that date but before April 1, 1918, in the face of an actual sugar shortage and with full knowledge of the Food Administration's announced program of sugar conservation, will be cut down to 50 per cent of requirements. Those who commenced operations or increased their capacity after that date will not be allowed to purchase sugar in any amounts.

These definite classifications protect the patriotic manufacturer who has been observing the requests of the Food Administration against competitors who have taken advantage of the sugar shortage to increase their profits.

Control of distribution will be in the hands of the Federal food administrators of each State. They will issue certificates to all manufacturers requiring sugar, upon delivery of sworn statements showing the amounts to which each is entitled. None of the distributing agencies will be allowed to sell sugar to any class of manufacturers except upon delivery of certificates. The certificates cover the period from May 15 to July 1, when new conservation measures may be deemed advisable.

All sellers of sugar—whether refiners, jobbers, retail or wholesale grocers—must cancel the certificates and return them within one month after the sale to the Federal food administrator by whom they were issued. From the returned certificates he will be able to check the record of those who are entitled to sugar and to detect any trading in or counterfeiting of certificates.

Manufacturers are being required to report the amount of sugar they held on January 1, 1917, and receipts from that date until July 1. Subtracting the amount on hand July 1 will give the total consumption for the first six months of 1917. They must also report stock on hand January 1, 1918, and receipts since that date. From those figures the administrators will be able to determine the additional amount of sugar to which the manufacturers are entitled.

Love is no respecter of persons. Even the fellow who eats with his knife may become spoony.

DO YOU KNOW WHY --- Pa Seldom Buys A Fashionable Lid?

TO ALL MANUFACTURERS USING SUGAR AND TO ALL WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALERS IN SUGAR

The following rules and regulations are effective May 15th:

1. On and after the above date, no manufacturers using sugar for manufacturing will be permitted to purchase sugar without an authorized sugar distribution certificate issued by the Food Administration. These certificates will be issued and delivered to the manufacturers at the office of the Sugar Distributing Committee of the Federal Food Administration for Kentucky, Room 811 Inter-Southern Building, Louisville, Ky., upon the sworn statement of the manufacturer, showing the amount of sugar to which each manufacturer is entitled. The amount of sugar to which each manufacturer is entitled will be on a basis that will distinguish between manufacturers of essential food products and manufacturers of less essential food products, and it will be in accordance with the percentage table founded on that amount of sugar that the manufacturers used during the first four and one-half months of the present year.

2. On and after the above date, a licensee shall not ship or deliver sugar to any person engaged in any business of manufacturing, bottling, packing or preparing products in which sugar is used until he has received from such purchaser a certificate issued to said purchaser by the Federal Food Administration for Kentucky which certificate shall be endorsed by said purchaser.

3. This rule shall not apply to sales or deliveries to (a) hotels, restaurants, boarding houses, or other public eating places whose products are sold for consumption on the premises; (b) wholesale or retail dealers in sugar holding a license from the United States Food Administration; (c) bakers and cracker manufacturers holding a baker's license from the United States Food Administration.

Certificates are required by the foregoing rule in selling to any of the following classes:

(a) Apple butter, beverage syrups, candy, catsup, cereals, chewing gum, chili sauce, chocolate, cocoa, condiments, confectionery, explosives, flavoring preserve, flavoring extracts, fruit syrups, glycerine, honey, invert sugar, ice cream, jam, jelly, meat products, medicine, pickles, soda water, soft drinks, syrups, tobacco, wine.

(b) Canners, preserves and packers of every kind of vegetables, fruit, milk and meat.

(c) Soda water fountains and dispensers of soft drinks.

(d) Bottlers of soft drinks.

(e) Leather tanners, and manufacturers of nonedible products (use of sugar prohibited).

Certificates are not required in selling to licensed wholesalers, retailers or bakers, even though they use sugar in the manufacture of other products, because the use of sugar by such dealers will be controlled direct by license regulations. Certificate are not required in sales to individual consumers, or in sales to unlicensed retailers of sugar not engaged in a manufacturing business.

The licensee shall not, after May 15, 1918, remit any sugar for the purpose of making invert sugar, syrup or molasses, or use sugar in the manufacture, bottling, packing or preparation of any other product until he has obtained from the Federal Food Administrator for Kentucky, certificates that the total amount of sugar to be so used will not exceed his fair share of the sugar now available for distribution.

Wholesale and retail groceries, refiners and sugar brokers are not to sell sugar after May 15th, to any manufacturer using sugar unless the manufacturer delivers the above mentioned certificate.

This ration schedule can be had by application to the Sugar Distributing Committee.

FRED M. SACKETT,
Federal Food Administrator for Kentucky.

USE RED GASOLINE

(New York Herald)

All gasoline being used by the French army is being tinted red in accordance with a recent military order. The purpose of the order is to prevent the gasoline from getting into civilian hands by illegal means. A product has been found which will give it a distinctive color without injuring its qualities. In one of the army services at the rear red gasoline already has been tested, with the result that the average consumption dropped immediately. This proved that not unimportant quantities of gasoline had been sold or given away to civilians. No person was found willing to have red gasoline in his possession.

For a considerable time now gasoline has been supplied only to those motorists who had absolute need of it and who were expected to use the gasoline for a specific purpose. If, however, the gasoline thus delivered was employed for other purposes the only punishment was to withhold further supplies. The officials have now authority to prosecute in the Criminal Court all persons who, having been supplied with gasoline for specific work of national importance, are making use of it in their private interests.

COST OF NATION'S MADNESS

(Leslie's)

Representative Frederick C. Hille, of New York, has compiled figures on the cost of the war. These show the combined expenses on both sides during the first three years amounted to $38,500,000,000, and that this vast sum will be increased to $160,000,000,000 if the war continues until August 1.

1918. This means that the entire cost of the American Civil War is being duplicated every 85 days, and that the cost of the Franco-Prussian War is equaled every five weeks. Reduced to comparisons, this enormous sum of money would construct 460 Panama Canals. It would build a railroad long enough to encircle the earth at the equator 92 times. It would purchase 3,360,000,000 unpriced automobiles. If put into one-dollar bills, placed end to end, it would make a chain of greenbacks that could reach around the world 757 times. Four years of the present war will cost more than seven times as much as the total direct cost of the six greatest wars in the 125 years previous to August, 1914, although one of these wars lasted 21 years. It is now costing the United States more than $50,000,000 a day, and that figure will be tremendously increased before the end of this year. These amazing statistics give an illustration of what civilization must pay as the price of Germany's madness.

WOMEN SHOULD SAVE ALL WOOL RAGS

The question "Why should we save wool?" is answered in a leaflet distributed by the Minnesota Woman's Committee, Council of National Defense and Public Safety Commission. The leaflet sets forth that a fully equipped soldier uses 13 times as much wool as the civilian. With the 1916 consumption of wool as a basis, civilians use 8.17 pounds each per year. The leaflet elicits one reason for saving the fact that there are less than 50,000,000 sheep in the United States, when three times as many should be raised, and urges the sending of all-wool rags to the shoddy mills for remanufacture.

HA VIN EXPLOSIVES

(Scientific American)

The statement has been made by a representative of the Government that 5,000,000 tons of coarse and grassy hay will be required this year in the production of a filler in the manufacture of high explosives. This hay is thoroughly macerated, and 20 per cent of the bulk of the explosive is said to be made of the resultant fiber, replacing the cotton formerly used. There are many places where such coarse, mixed hay can be grown, but where hay suitable for feed is difficult to produce.

A THOROUGH TEST

One to Convince the Most Skeptical Maysville Reader.

The test of time is the test that counts. Doan's Kidney Pills have made their reputation by effective action. The following case is typical. Maysville residents should be convinced.

The testimony is confirmed — the proof complete. Testimony like this cannot be ignored.

Henry S. Gallenstein, blacksmith, 124 W. Third St., Maysville, says: "My kidneys were out of order and I had pains through my back. Doan's Kidney Pills put an entire stop to the pains and my kidneys became 'all right.' (Statement given January 9, 1912).

RESULTS THAT REMAIN — Four years later, or on November 14, 1916, Mr. Gallenstein said: "I haven't had any need of a kidney medicine since I last recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. The benefit they gave me has been permanent."

Mr. Gallenstein is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches — if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy — ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mr. Gallenstein had — the remedy backed by home testimony. 60 cents at all stores. ## TWO MILLION MOTHERS ENLIST IN BABY-SAVING CAMPAIGN

Thirty-four States have asked for 2,326,565 of the weighing and measuring cards to be used in the baby-saving campaign with which the beginning of the Children's Year has been celebrated. This means that more than 2,000,000 mothers will strip weigh, and measure their babies and write the resulting figures on a card so that the information may be used to safeguard the health of children in all parts of the country.

Dr. Jessica B. Peixoto, head of the Department of Child Welfare, of the Woman's Committee of the Council of National Defense, reports that 932 working programs have been asked for by chairmen of local committees, together with 15,623 copies of Leaflet No. 1, entitled "Save 100,000 Babies," and 19,533 copies of Leaflet No. 2, which gives directions about weighing and measuring.

FLAG FLIES ABOVE GARDEN

With the great and growing need for food to feed the army of the United States, the Allies of America and its own people, there is a spiritual beauty about a garden of vegetables which surpasses that of a sweet-scented garden of flowers. Above every home garden in the United States there is flaring in spirit. If not in reality, the red, white and blue of the American flag. Last year there were planted in this country 2,000,000 home gardens. This was the National War Garden Commission, through whose encouragement and inspiration the "war garden" movement was started.

INDIAN WOMEN KNITTING AND DOING RED CROSS WORK

Indian women are knitting and doing Red Cross work, according to information from the Oklahoma Division of the Woman's Committee of the Council of National Defense. Members of the Cherokee and Delaware Tribes and of the Osage Nation, said to be composed of the feathery Indians in the world, are contributing generously to the war, for which hundreds of their young men have enlisted or have been drafted.

HITCHCOCK SUCCEEDS STONE

Nebraska's Chosen Chairman of Foreign Relations in Place of Missouri.

Washington, May 9—Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, was made chairman today of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Mr. Hitchcock, who was senior Democratic member of the committee, succeeds the late Senator Stone in a rearrangement of Democratic committee assignments caused by the recent deaths of several Senators.

The Steering Committee decided to increase the Senate Military Committee by two members because of its importance during the war and named Senator Smith of Georgia, as a member. Senator Knox, of Pennsylvania, probably will become the new Republican member.

Among other committee changes was the election of Senator Lewis, of Illinois, to a vacancy on the Finance Committee.

Senator Hitchcock upon election as head of the Foreign Relations Committee retired as chairman of the Philippines Committee. His place will not be filled until later. Senator Saulsbury, of Delaware, may be named.

Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, was named on the Foreign Relations Committee to fill the vacancy caused by Senator Stone's death.

Mr. George Feister left today for Bay Point, Ohio, where he goes to take a position in a large stairway plant.

REPORT MADE

By Ladies of the Clean-Up Campaign Of Work Accomplished.

The ladies of the clean-up campaign committee met at the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday afternoon and transacted some very important business.

Reports were called for from the several committees appointed at last meeting. Mrs. Caplinger reported that Mrs. Moses, Miss Casey and herself visited the public and parochial schools and enlisted the support of the children in behalf of the clean-up campaign.

Mrs. Clark reported that her committee composed of Mrs. R. B. Lovel and Miss Berry had visited the city and county officials and were assured of their hearty co-operation in the campaign. They were also assured that wagons would be on the job all during the week to move the debris.

In Mrs. Ross' absence Miss Richeson reported that they had visited the stores of Maysville and were assured that their advertisements would bear "Clean-up Campaign" material. The advertisements appearing in this week's issue bear testimony of the fruits of their labor.

Miss Nivn reported that with the assistance of Mrs. Moses the special unsightly and unsanitary places were receiving attention. She reports that she is assured of the co-operation of the Fire Department Thursday in burning rubbish on the various dumps also that Mr. A. C. Carr had loaned a wagon to her committee and it was being used in removing the debris from the Ellis dump. Mrs. T. M. Russell was appointed to assist Miss Nivn in the effort to clean the special unsightly spots this week.

Mrs. R. B. Lovel said she was glad to report a successful effort in behalf of a permanent dump.

Assisted by Mrs. Frank Clark and Mrs. James Ross a petition was presented to the City Council asking that the various dumping grounds about the city be eliminated and one permanent dump designated. That Council had referred resolution back to committee and the committee through their spokesman Mrs. Ross, recommended to Council that the city lot on Bridge street be designated the City Dump. This met with the unanimous approval of Council and upon vote was elected such by Council.

The chairman reported that much publicity had been given the campaign through the courtesy of the local papers and Chief of Police Harry A. Ort had kindly responded to the request to issue orders through police calling upon residents of the city to clean-up their premises.

The committee then made a tour of autos of the various dumps about the city in order to gain first hand information in regard to the prevailing conditions. After returning from the inspection tour the committee expressed the opinion that the effort to clean-up Maysville be continued, as many of the places could not be cleaned this week and many conditions would demand more time in order that the desired improvement be made. They also felt that the clean-up campaign should not rest after this week but that an organized effort should be put forth in an endeavor to "Keep Maysville Clean." Keeping Maysville clean resolves itself into three sub-divisions—disposal of garbage, rubbish and paper. With this thought in mind the chairman appointed on the "Keep Maysville Clean Committee" Mrs. T. M. Russell, Mrs. R. B. Lovel and Mrs. T. L. Moses. These ladies will endeavor to have the citizens of Maysville put the garbage in receptacles with stated periods for collection of same; either burn or bale waste paper; burn or save fire wood and have a box or barrel in which to throw tin cans or junk, which will be called for from time to time.

Mrs. R. B. Lovel, Mrs. Frank Clark, Mrs. James Ross and Mrs. T. M. Russell were appointed a committee to see that signs are erected at the various dumping grounds calling attention to the fact that a permanent dump has been erected and the dumping of rubbish or garbage in any other place was an offense punishable by law. They will also see to it that the law is enforced.

Mrs. James Ross, Miss Richeson, Mrs. Caplinger and Miss Hughes were appointed a committee to arrange for the collection and storage of fire wood which is scattered about town.

Mrs. Frank Clark, Miss Berry and Miss Casey were appointed a committee to arrange for the collection and disposal of the tin cans scattered about the city.
